

Allowing Sinclair Broadcasting to force stations to air anti-Kerry ads days before the election is not standing up for unbiased, open press. It is not standing up for our democracy and the public interest.

I am greatly concerned about media consolidation and the erosion of free, unbiased information. This is a clear violation of such principals.

Thank you,

Stephanie Johnson